TRUSTS TO BE KEPT IN LAW

Noted Government Prosecutor Says New Attorney General Continues the Fight

M'REYNOLDS IN ACCORD WITH IMPARTIAL POLICY

Mr. Wickersham Talks of Party Future—Says No Reason Why China Should Not Be Recognized

Greeted by a delegation representing practically every branch of the territorial and federal governments, former Attorney-General George Woodward Wickersham, world-renowned "trust-buster" and perhaps the most distinguished member of ex-President Taft's cabinet, was made welcome to Honolulu when the Pacific Mail liner Korea docked at a little before 10 o'clock this morning.

In the Wickersham party, besides Mr. and Mrs. Wickersham, are Miss Frances Noyes, daughter of President Frank B. Noyes of the Associated Press; Miss Martha Bowers, daughter of the late solicitor-general Lloyd W. Bowers, and Mr. Frederick P.
Moore, a wealthy young New York businessman. After an informal reception in the saloon of the Korea, the party was taken in an auto to the Moana hotel, where plans will be laid for the day's entertainment of Honolulu's distinguished visitors.

In an interview with a representative of the Star-Bulletin, Mr. Wickersham discussed frankly the future of the Republican party, the probable program of trust legislation under the Wilson administration, and the policy of the Republican party in regard to the Chinese loan from which President Wilson has repeatedly taken occasion to differ.

"The Republican party is an old and established institution," Mr. Wickersham said, "and although the present-day movement towards a greater and I might almost say, a more radical, democracy may change in some way the party platform. The party itself and the old party principles are things which will endure. The movement towards a so-called Progressive party, such as fostered by Mr. Roosevelt, is, I believe, sporadic and temporary. I left Washington too early to really see how things are going under the new administration, as I lost no time in getting out immediately after the inauguration.

McReynolds in Sympathy.
"As for my successor in office, Mr.
McReynolds, I have every confidence in the world in him and I understand from conversation with him that the prosecution against monopoly under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law will go on now in very much the same way as before. Mr. McReynolds has done some very good work for me at times in the past and I am convinced that he is heartily in accord with the policies that I endeavored to perpetuate."

Favors Recognition of China.
In explaining the position of the Republican party in regard to the mooted Chinese loan, Mr. Wickersham stated that it was thought necessary for the government to use its influence in order that the one-sixth of the loan apportioned could be taken up by American financiers.

Some form of guaranty was necessary, he pointed out, that the money loaned to China would be used for the purposes specified. Mr. Wickersham declared that he was not aware of President Wilson's having altered the stand of the government in this matter. "As a matter of fact," he said, "I see no reason now why the United States should not recognize the Chinese Republic nor do I see any

AD CLUB URGES PUBLICITY FOR PROMOTION

Special Committee Report Points Out Necessity for Community Interest

"The public has been left to shift for itself so long that it does not take any interest in promotion work, and even some of the big men are willing to let George do it."

"It is the opinion of your committee that next to the sugar industry the promotion industry is the most important of the Hawaiian Islands and should have the moral and financial support of every inhabitant."

"How can the public be interested sufficiently to give their moral and financial support?"

"By publicity."

This is the conclusion of the special committee of the Honolulu Ad Club which has been studying the problem of Promotion Advertising at Hawaii. It is contained in the report made by the committee headed by J. F. Child at the regular Thursday luncheon, and unanimously adopted.

As the name implies, the Honolulu Ad Club is made up of men who are

SAN DIEGO EXPO. HEAD COMES ON KOREA

For the purpose of soliciting the interest and co-operation of Hawaii and the cities of the Orient, Winfield W.
Hogaboom, director-general of the San Diego 1915 Exposition, arrived in Honolulu on the Korea this morning for a short stay in the islands. Mr.
Hogaboom was met at the wharf by Chairman H. P. Wood of the Hawaiian fair commission, and spent the morning touring the city.

It is the hope of the San Diego fair management that Hawaii will enter an exhibit, but on account of the fact that the legislature of 1911 provided only for the appointment of a commission to report upon the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and therefore all efforts have been directed towards this latter undertaking. It is believed that some of the commissioners, however, will make an attempt to have an Hawaiian exhibit at San Diego in 1915.

The San Diego exposition buildings, upon which project Mr. Hogaboom has been steadily working, will probably be one of the most unique groups ever built. The work is now well under way and it is expected that the exposition will be ready to open on January 1, 1915. The area of the exposition grounds is more than 600 acres and the number of main buildings will be fifteen. The entire undertaking will be largely educational.

"This is my first visit to Honolulu," said Mr. Hogaboom this afternoon, "and I must say that the city has exceeded my expectations. You have indeed a beautiful city. Now about the San Diego fair. Of course, we

Gubernatorial Race Is Run With Gusto

Backers of Waller and Mc-Candless Keep on the Trail at Washington

By C. S. ALBERT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 10.— More political dust is being stirred up every minute by those seeking federal places for their friends in Hawaii. It seems that the air will be soon clouded with the fierce heat of activity and competition.

James I. Coke has been strongly recommended to Attorney General McReynolds for United States Attorney, to succeed Robert W. Breckons.
The department of justice head has been told that Mr. Coke is an able man of good standing fully qualified to perform the duties of the position.

A delegation of those serving as members in the house judiciary committee took the initiative for Mr.

CUMMINS FUNERAL
MAY BE SEMI-OFFICIAL

Up to noon today arrangements for the funeral of the late J. A. Cummins had not been decided. About noon the suggestion is heard that a semi-state funeral would be appropriate, in view of the fact that Mr. Cummins once held the premiership of the Hawaiian kingdom and was long a prominent figure in the public life of the country. It is probable that this distinction will be given to the obsequies by having at least a military escort with the band in attendance. Judge Dole, who was president of the republic and commander-in-chief of its forces when Mr. Cummins was dealt with by the military commission, was to be asked to act as one of the honorary pall-bearers, according to a report this morning. His appearance in this role would be a signal evidence of the obliteration of all harsh feelings obtaining in the troublous period of eighteen years ago.

Coke. Headed by Representative

Webb, of North Carolina, who made a fine record during the Archbald impeachment proceedings, called on Mr.
McReynolds and filed their petitions favoring Mr. Coke. In so doing they followed the behest of President Wilson that cabinet ministers be consulted on the various brands of federal patronage.

McCandless Boomers Busy

At the same time the McCandless boomers added to the gaiety of the occasion by turning a new trick for their candidate. They seem right in the fight and propose drawing blood, if possible.

National Committeeman Hugh C.
Todd led a delegation of prominent people from the state of Washington right up to the White House. They saw the president and urged him to select L. L. McCandless for governor of Hawaii. They eulogized his services to the Democratic party and declared he should receive the reward indicated.

While looking after the government for McCandless, the Washingtonians recommended the appointment of Palmer P. Woods as territorial secretary of Hawaii. They carried with them a bunch of endorsements and indicated their nature to the president.

Later, the boomers went down to the interior department and told the same story to Secretary Lane. They filed a batch of papers with him.

If this activity continues Hawaii will soon take a front seat and be in the middle of the political battle for the spoils of office.

Race Started Early

The gubernatorial free-for-all race began going like a house afire immediately after Albert J. Waller and B. C. Rivenburgh had made their official round and presented their claims to President Wilson and Secretary Lane. It looks like the contest will be both edifying and entertaining.

KOREAN SEEKS DEATH UNDER STREETCAR

Believed to be intent upon committing suicide by deliberately jumping in front of Rapid Transit car No. 49, in charge of Conductor Young, as it was passing over the McCully track, a Korean named Pi Yong Long received injuries this morning which necessitated his removal to the Queen's Hospital.

The only statement made by the injured man was his name, and, according to the motorman, the man was evidently seeking death under the wheels of the rapidly-moving car. The car was coming across the track on "nine points," as is the usual custom, and when about half way across the motorman noticed a man standing near the track, apparently waiting for the car to pass. As the car approached him he sprang toward the middle of the track, directly in the path of the oncoming car. As he made the leap, his foot slipped on the wet banking, the front of the running board striking him and hurling him to one side. The motorman, although he saw his car down as it approached the man, did not stop it, as the man did not jump until the front of the car was directly opposite him.

After the man had been struck, the car was immediately brought to a standstill, and the injured man placed on board and taken as far as King street. Superintendent Pratt, who happened to be passing as the car turned into King street, had the man placed in his automobile, where he was conveyed to the hospital. He was reported by the hospital authorities this noon to be suffering from several painful bruises. Otherwise, the man is in no danger.

Beware of a suspicious man; he is apt to judge you by himself.

win; a man plays it for pastime.

PRISONER IN DARING NIGHT JAIL-BREAK

Chun Duck Soon, Chinese "Bad Man", Adds to Long Record of Desperate Deeds

Burrowing his way under the prison like a gopher until he had at last dug an egress into the front yard, Chun Duck Soon, a Chinese prisoner, with a long record of crime, made his escape from the penitentiary last night, trailing a ball and chain behind him.

Now out in the cane field, working away at the irons which fetter his feet, the escaped prisoner is believed to be making good his escape. Dogs and posse have vainly searched for him beginning with day break, but their work was interfered with by the heavy rain which obliterated his trail.
Police have been notified of the escape and are keeping constant watch, ready to make his capture when he leaves the field.

A board which he had torn from the floor of his cell was used as a spade in working his underground passage, and when he reached the front yard of the prison a few pieces of wood aided him in scaling the twelve-foot wall, which separated him from freedom.

With two floor boards removed by the use of a hook detached from the door, the rest of his flight to the open air is believed to have been comparatively short, and probably would have been brief still had Antonio Rodrigue-s, who sought to escape with him, not been stopped before his progress was far advanced.

Both, however, had succeeded in removing two floor boards, but the Chinaman had completed his work with more dispatch, for when the work of his accomplice was detected at 2 o'clock in the morning by Sheriff Henry the former was already a fugitive. Rodrigue, whose long prison history is spotted with many escapes, and whose last one occurred only a few days ago, was taken to a dark cell, where he again made an unsuccessful effort to escape, though handcuffs and a ball and chain fettered him.

High Sheriff William Henry believes Chun Duck Soon should be captured in twenty-four hours, and he states that he would be certain of it if it were any other prisoner except Soon, whose cunning has outwitted the police many times, and who is regarded as perhaps the most dangerous and vicious convict in the penitentiary.

He is known as a "repeater" at the prison, having served various terms for burglary and heinous crimes, and was serving a three-to-twenty year term for theft.

This makes the fifth escape since 1907. One of the fugitives being still at large, having escaped January 16, 1912. The remaining three were caught within a few days.

Sheriff Henry is very dissatisfied with the present penitentiary conditions, and declares that not one of the escapes would have been made had the prison been in proper condition. Boards which are rotting cover the prison cells, and he states that a convict should have little difficulty in making his escape under present conditions.

An appropriation was made by the last legislature for a prison, but little has been done toward it, the sheriff states, and he does not know when action will be taken to erect it.

MANY DIE IN BIG STORM

Middle West and South Suffer in Terrible Equinoctial Gales.
Whole Towns Destroyed

(Associated Press Cable)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Mar. 21.— Brief and spasmodic telegraphic dispatches today indicate one of the most terrible storms in the history of the country is ravaging the middle west and south.

Already have come reports showing that thirty-three people have been killed, 110 injured and property value at $3,000,000 destroyed in the equinoctial gales. The middle states have suffered particularly. Fifteen people were killed in Lone Pine, Ala., where the town was laid in ruins, and Poplar Bluff, Missouri, was utterly destroyed.

Chicago is isolated both east and west, the telegraph and long-distance telephone wires being severed for several hours.

AUSTRIA IS READY TO ISSUE AN ULTIMATUM

(Associated Press Cable)

VIENNA, Austria, March 21.—Austria is preparing an ultimatum to Montenegro, as was indicated in dispatches yesterday. It is said that the ultimatum has been decided upon "owing to the unsatisfactory nature of Mon-tenegro's reply to the remonstrances against the bombardment of Scutari."

PENN. MEDICOS SNUB FRIEDMANN

fused to issue even a temporary medical license to Dr. Franz Friedrich Friedmann, the Berlin tuberculosis specialist, who has brought his "sore" to this country, and in consequence Dr.
Friedmann is not expected to be able to make any tests in this state.

virtual anarchy exists in Chihuahua, fortnight ago near Terreon.

ber of the crew of the schooner Kitocoast, the surviving party living on walrus meat and berries.

COLORADO CONVICT DIES FOR KILLING WARDEN

(Associated Press Cable)

LINCOLN, Neb., March 21.—Albert Prince, colored, was hanged here today for the murder of Warden Davis of the Penitentiary. The murder of Davis was a brutal deed done in cold blood.

HILO JAPANESE SHOOT HIMSELF

(Wireless to The Star-Bulletin.)

HILO, Hawaii, March 21.—Kochi Choku, a Japanese laborer, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself.
He was said to be despondent over failing to win the affections of a Janese woman.
